

QUOTES ON THE NEWS

JOSEPH AND STEWART ALSOP: "What is nonsense and what is worth reporting? . . . One of our B-29's . . . was flying at somewhat more than 20,000 feet above the town of Wonsan [when] two members of the crew saw the same peculiar object. It was round and both airmen thought it was disk-shaped. It was orange in color, and around its circumference it seemed to have a series of small bluish flames. . . . To both airmen it seemed to fly with a revolving motion

Are the Disks Russian?

"Another . . . closely similar report was received almost simultaneously . . . from an entirely different B-29 squadron . . . flying at about 20,000 feet over Sunchon, a considerable distance from Wonsan. . . . [The reports] are the subject of anxious inquiry at high official levels. The Korean experience has convinced American experts of our earlier folly in underestimating Soviet technical capabilities."
