Legal Weed: Two things come from hemp. One is good: fiber for rope. The other is bad: marijuana, a narcotic. Because of anti-narcotic laws, growing of the weed has been prohibited for many years in many states. But now that Asiatic sources of rope fiber supply are cut off, the Department of Agriculture is asking that 300,000 acres of hemp be grown this year. Middle Western farmers responded by planting fields like this.
