

ALCOHOLIC SANDWICH LATEST REMEDY FOR U.S. PROHIB DROUGHT

I NTOXICATING sandwiches are next on the program in the States. Dr. John C. Olsen has invented a jelly cocktail which is said to have a kick as powerful as cognac. It is made of chemical paste, eaten with a knife and fork or spread on bread, and evades the prohibition act because it is not a beverage.