

ARMORED CAR, M8, 6x6, the Army's latest combat vehicle, is a six-wheeled, eight-ton armored job that can hit high speed over practically any type of terrain. It mounts a 37-mm cannon and a .30-caliber machine gun in a hand-operated traversable turret. The M8 carries a crew of four and is intended primarily for use in reconnaissance combat.

June 23, 1944