

THE ATLANTA GEORGIAN
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1917

HUSBAND MUST BATHE.

CHICAGO, March 21 -John Tessen, 6 feet 6 inches tall, had not bathed since Labor Day because he was so big he couldn't fit comfortably in the bath-tub and became chilly as a result. His wife had him arrested. He promised to take one plunge anyhow and Judge Stelke freed him.

OldMagazineArticles.com