

Women May Smoke In Public, Says Court

NEW YORK, March 3.—It is no crime for a woman to smoke in a public place—in New York. Magistrate Corrigan so ruled today and discharged Mary Driscoll, Edna Stanley and Elsie Peterson, who were arrested for smoking in The Times Square subway station.

