

VOLUME 123, NUMBER 1, JULY, 1933

PAGE 52

LINEN AND COTTON FIRST

by MARIAN COREY

The plaid gingham blouse—This photograph, taken at Palm Beach last winter, shows Miss Eleanor Barry, of Orange, N. J., wearing a plaid gingham blouse with dark slacks and an Ascot scarf. Mr. William Rhinelander Stewarf Is in the photograph with Miss Barry

Charlotte Stockton of Princeton, New Jersey, wore it last spring at Castle Harbour. The dress has the new heart-shaped décolletage, and a wing ruffle for sleeves. Miss Stockton wore it with a tailored dark velvet belt

OldMagazineArticles.com

The white piqué jacket—At Palm Beach last winter Miss Antoinette Johnson wore this white cotton jacket over dark slacks and a dark shirt. Note the cross-buttoning which is new. Such a jacket can be wern with sports clothes, daytime dresses, evening gowns

Chew was photographed wearing this dress over her bathing suit in lieu of the usual py-james. The dress is wrap-around and has the new halter neekline, sun-back and bare shoulders. Photographed at Castle Harbour

The candy-stripe beach dress-Miss Elizabeth

OldMagazineArticles.com